Always acting in the best interests of the children of Heathlands school.	Listening to and valuing all members of the Heathlands community.	Taking a positive and proactive approach to our roles and responsibilities.	Holding people to account and conducting difficult conversations where necessary.	Speaking and acting with kindness towards everyone we encounter at Heathlands.
Keeping sensitive information confidential and only sharing with relevant people.	Being polite, courteous role models in how we speak to and treat others.	Creating a fun atmosphere of high challenge and low threat in school.	Taking risks without compromising the safety or wellbeing of children and staff.	Taking an interest in the lives and wellbeing of all members of the Heathlands community.
